Location: President's Stadium, Old Westbury

Time: 4 p.m.

Series: NYIT leads 17-2-1

Watch live: www.nyitbears.com/BSN

Officials: Jorge Ramirez, Richard Zayas, Bob Baldwin

ABOUT THE MEETING: NYIT defeated Concordia 3-2 on Nov. 2, 2013 at President's Stadium in the last meeting between the teams. Dominic Iovino, now playing for FC Arizona in the National Premier Soccer League, evened the score at 2 with a goal at 66:59. Harvey Houpe then netted the game-winner at 68:03. The Bears are unbeaten in their last 11 meetings against Concordia (10-0-1). The last win by the Clippers came in 2000 – a 7-0 victory the season before Carlos Delcid took over as NYIT head coach.

POLL POSITION: The Bears (10-4-4, 5-2-2 ECC in 2016) are picked to finish second in the East Coast Conference. LIU Post, which produced an 18-1-1 overall record and No. 8 ranking in last year's final National Soccer Coaches Association of America Division II poll, was the unanimous selection of the ECC's 10 coaches to repeat as champions. Concordia was picked to finish seventh of 13 teams in the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference by its league's coaches. The Clippers won the CACC regular-season title in 2016. Wilmington (Del.), which the Bears host on Sept. 28, was voted No. 1 in this year's CACC preseason poll.

OPENING DAY: NYIT has won its last four season openers, defeating Bloomfield in 2016 (3-1), Chestnut Hill in 2015 (4-1), Holy Family in 2014 (4-1) and Bentley in 2013 (1-0). The last loss came in the 2012 opener against New Haven (2-0).

UNITED NATIONS: Nine different countries are represented on the NYIT roster – the United States (18 players), Spain (7), England (2), Colombia (1), Costa Rica (1), India (1), Italy (1), Mexico (1), Sweden (1).

CAPTAINS: Carlos Coto and Jonathan Rico were selected captains for a third straight season. Coto was limited to six matches last season because of a toe injury. Rico trained this summer with the Long Island Rough Riders in the Premier Development League and appeared in one match.

OH, BROTHER: Freshman Kevin Martinez's brother, Carlos, played soccer for NYIT from the 2011 through '14 seasons, helping lead Bears to three NCAA Tournament appearances, two ECC titles and 50-19-6 record during that span.

WELCOME BACK: Redshirt junior John Camponeschi and redshirt freshman Jason Scott return to action after missing the 2016 season with knee injuries.

GOING PRO: Former NYIT standout Vinny Caccavale made his pro debut on July 16, with the Blacktown Spartans in Australia. Freshman goalkeeper Nilxon Ventura played for Caccavale in high school last year.

PROJECTED NYIT STARTERS:

Carlos Delcid enters his 17th season at the helm of the NYIT men's soccer program in 2017. Under his tutelage, more than 50 student-athletes have received all-conference honors.

Delcid has also coached three players to National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA)/adidas All-America recognition. Eduardo Anacelto received the honor in 2006 as he was named to the second team, while Kyle Cupid earned first team honors in 2007. Last season, captain Vinny Caccavale became the fourth Bear, and third under Delcid, to earn All-America honors from the NSCAA. He also made program history as the team's first CoSIDA Academic All-District I selection and the program's first NSCAA Scholar All-American.

In 2011, Delcid coached the Bears to their first ECC Tournament championship and the program's fifth NCAA Regional berth.

Delcid became the first NYIT men's soccer coach to reach the 100-win plateau on Sept. 11, 2010, in a 2-1 overtime win against American International at President's Stadium.

In 2007, Delcid guided NYIT to a 14-4-2 record and a trip to the NCAA Northeast Regional. It was the second time in three years the Bears advanced to the NCAA Tournament, and Delcid was recognized by his peers as he was voted the ECC Co-Coach of the Year. Even more impressive was that Delcid and the Bears were able to bounce back after experiencing their first losing season during his tenure, a 7-8-1 record in 2006.

In 2001, Delcid took over a team that was just 3-14-1 the season before and led them to an 11-4-1 record, the best turnaround in all of Division II that year. With each season, the Bears kept improving, and in 2002, NYIT finished with a 12-4-1 record, 7-2 in the ECC and as ECC Tri-Champions. In 2003, all of the hard work and effort paid off as the Bears received a bid to the NCAA Northeast Regional for the first time since 1985. NYIT was ranked No. 7 nationally for eight straight weeks and No. 1 in the Northeast Region for most of the season.

Delcid moved to Port Jefferson, N.Y., while in his teens and attended Comsewogue High School. From there, he enrolled at Farmingdale Community College, where he earned all-conference goal scorer and MVP as a midfielder. In 1994, he enrolled at NYIT and started on the men's soccer team. After graduating in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice, Delcid obtained his master's degree in professional studies with a concentration in clinical counseling in 1998. He continued playing on the semi-professional soccer team he had been playing on since 1994, the L.I. Hercules, and later moved over to the Brooklyn Knights, a Division III professional team in 1998. Then, in 2000, he returned to his native country, Honduras, and assisted F.C. Universidad, a first division team.

Delcid is actively involved with youth soccer on Long Island, having coached five different teams to Division I championships over the past decade.
