NYIT WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL NCAA DIVISION II ELITE EIGHT TOURNAMENT

BOB MARTINEZ ATHLETIC CENTER TAMPA, FLORIDA

DECEMBER 10-12, 2015

After coming off a 2014 season where the team nearly missed the conference playoffs, the NYIT volleyball team has made a historic run to conclude the 2015 campaign and Head Coach Gail Wasmus's 30th season at the helm. Prior to the start of the Elite 8 tournament, the team posts a 28-7 overall record, which matches the program's best 28-win season from 2003.

The squad got off to a hot start, winning nine of their first 11 games in the month of September. Their first loss of the season came at the hands of the University of Bridgeport, on September 24, 3-1. However, the tables turned on October 22, when the team earned redemption, giving Bridgeport their first loss of the 2015 campaign in a five set thriller in NYIT's gym. To close out regular season the Blue and Gold won six of their last eight games before earning the four seed in the East Coast Conference tournament on November 20-21.

In four sets, the Bears topped No. 2 Dowling College and were pitted against hosting Bridgeport once more in the ECC championship game. Despite outblocking the Purple Knights 12 to four, the No. 1 seed took the Championship for their fourth straight ECC Champion title.

NYIT was one of four teams from the ECC that earned a spot in the NCAA East Region Tournament. NYIT had a familiar first round foe in Northern Boulevard neighbor and No. 5 seed, LIU Post. The Pioneers are made their fourth straight NCAA appearance, and fifth in six years, after compiling a 23-10 record on the season. The two teams split their two matches earlier this season.

After dropping the first set, the Bears came back to win the next two but ultimately the Pioneers forced a fifth set, which the higher seed took by a 15-13 final to advance to the semifinals in the NCAA East Region Tournament.

From there the Bears continued to sweep teams, as they defeated No.1 and hosting Adelphi University in three sets. Earlier in the season, the two teams met and NYIT dropped a five-set contest in Garden City, N.Y., playing without ECC Second Team honoree Emily Mankowski. This was the first moment of history that was made as this was the first time in program history that NYIT advanced to the East Region Finals.

The other side of the bracket featured Bridgeport and Dowling College, in which the Purple Knights came out victorious, to make the NCAA East Region final a rematch of the ECC Championship game. Three different players for the Blue and Gold reached double-figure kills and the three attackers, along with Allison Fowler who paced the offense with 38 assists, all earned inclusion on the All-Tournament team, announced at the conclusion of the match. The East Region title not only earned them the programs berth to the Elite 8 tournament for the first time, but it also tied a season best 28 wins, which was reached in 2003.

This year, the Elite 8 sees only two No. 1 seeds advance from their regions. It's an Elite 8 full of some surprises and some teams that many would consider the underdog. Wayne State, Rockhurst and NYIT are all reaching the tournament by way of Regional victories for the first time.

NYIT AGAINST THE FIELD

The team holds an 0-1 record against the entire field, only meeting up with Wayne State (Neb.) back in 2004, when the Bears dropped a 3-1 contest on September 3. NYIT went on to post a 27-10 overall record that season, where they finished fifth in the ECC and only appeared in the conference tournament. Other than that one matchup, the Bears have not seen any other members of the 2015 Elite 8.

The squad will meet Palm Beach Atlantic for the first time in school history. The Sailfish won the NCAA Division II South Region and are 29-4 this season. They entered the NCAA tournament with an AVCA ranking of No. 9 in the nation.

Head Coach Gail Wasmus

Ashland College '76

30th Season

Record (at NYIT):

2015 marks the 30th season for Gail Wasmus as the head coach of the NYIT women's volleyball program. Under her tutelage, the volleyball program has reached unprecedented heights and is now one of the top programs in the Northeast. Leading the Bears from 1976-1986 and then again from 1997-today, Wasmus posts a 529-389 career record with 14, 20+ win seasons, making her the 13th most winningest coach (by victories) in all of NCAA Division II.

2014 was the first time in four seasons that NYIT did not reach the East Coast Conference Tournament or the NCAA East Regional Tournament. The Bears ended the season at below .500 (13-17) which they had not done since 2009. One of Wasmus' best seasons came in 2013 as her team posted a 27-7 overall record and advanced to the NCAA East Regional semifinal, eventually falling to LIU Post 3-0. That year Shelby Cable and Savannah Donarski (1st Team All-Conference) and Marija Jovanovic (2nd Team All-Conference) earned inclusion on the AVCA All-Region team, with Cable and Donarski also earning Daktronic All-East Region recognition. Cable also went on to receive her third consecutive AVCA All-America honorable mention accolade making her the first two-time All-American in the volleyball program's 35-year history.

The Bears advanced to the NCAA Regional semifinal for the second time in program history in 2012 and finished the year 22-10. NYIT's best season came in 2003, where Wasmus led her team to a 28-7 overall record, falling short of the NCAA Regional Tournament. She accumulated nine 20 + win seasons after returning in 1997 and coached numerous post-season award winners. Her cabinet includes two All-American honorable mentions, 14 All-Region, 12 All-NYCAC, 20 All-ECC players as well as Coach of the Year three times, as voted on by her peers.

She took over a volleyball program that was just one year old in 1976, and immediately turned it into a winner. Following a 4-5 first season, Wasmus led the Bears to nine consecutive winning seasons from 1977 to 1985, including seven straight appearances in the NYSIAAW Tournament from 1977 to 1983.

Wasmus left NYIT in 1985 and became the director of an indoor sports complex for eight years. She eventually opened her own company, Independence All-Sports Apparel, which she successfully operates today.

Assistant Coach Emily Syers

Syers, a 2011 graduate from NYIT and alum of the NYIT volleyball program has worked with Coach Wasmus for the past two seasons. She sits eighth in the NYIT Record Book in single season assists at 1,089 and fourth for her career assist record at 2,145. In her time as a student-athlete, Syers made four straight ECC tournament appearances and one NCAA East Region appearance. Her sister, Becky is the senior libero on the team.
