 Overall WBB Record (Years): 248-434 (32)

Waltham, Mass. - After making history with a first round win over No. 3 Philadelphia University, and a semifinal victory against No. 2 American International College, the NYIT women's basketball team will advance for the first time to the NCAA Division II East Region Championship hosted at the Dana Center. Tip-off is slated for 7:00 p.m. on Monday, March 14 at the home of the Falcons, with a live broadcast provided by the Pack Network.

The two squads, who met on the same court back on Nov. 30 with Bentley coming out on top by 15 (71-55), have distinctly different NCAA tournament histories. NYIT's first two NCAA tourney wins came this weekend, 88-74 over the Rams and 73-69 over second-seeded Yellow Jackets. On the other hand, Head Coach Barbara Stevens' Falcons won the 2014 national championship, will be seeking their fourth Elite Eight berth in six years and have played and won more NCAA tournament games than any other Division II team nationally.

NYIT finished the 2015-16 campaign at 24-7 (a program record for wins) and 18-2 in East Coast Conference play, to capture the regular season title, including a season-high 16 game win streak from December 2 to February 10. The squad dropped their semifinal contest of the ECC playoffs to Roberts Wesleyan, but still earned the sixth seed ahead of the regional tournament. In their last tournament berth (2013), the Bears also earned the same seed, but fell to Dowling College 51-62 to conclude the season at 23-6.

NYIT, in its two regional wins this season, has come up big in the fourth quarter of both. They outscored Philadelphia 21-15 over the final ten minutes and AIC 20-13 during the same time frame. The AIC game saw 18 lead changes and 14 ties totaling 9:00 minutes, before the Bears prevailed by four.

Shanice Allen is averaging 21.5 points through the tournament behind .464 shooting from the field and over fifty percent shooting from three-point range. The Riverhead, N.Y. native was the leading scorer against Philadelphia and second best against AIC. Also posting double-figure point average is East Coast Conference Player of the Year Dina Ragab at 17.5, nearly missing the double-double with 9.0 rebounds per game. Nina Vukosavljevic and Julie Williams are responsible for 13.5 and 10.0 points per game, respectively, combining to dish out 22 assists over the past two games.

The Blue and Gold have shot 33-40 at the charity stripe, compared to opponents 17-21 performance at the line. Statistically, the two teams are similar with both having a 4.5 rebound margin and a scoring margin a little over eight. Bentley has shot better from three (.364 as compared to .306), but NYIT comes up with more steals, nearly nine a game.

In the earlier meeting, Bentley went wire-to-wire for the win behind a 23-point, 12-rebound effort by Jen Gemma. That loss dropped the Bears to 5-5 on the season. Since then, coach Anthony Crocitto's club has won 21 of its last 24.

The first two rounds of the Elite Eight will be held in Sioux Falls, S.D. before the national championship game is contested during the Women's Final Four in Indianapolis.

2016 NCAA EAST REGION WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS NCAA EAST REGION TOURNAMENT

HISTORY IN THE NCAA'S

This is just the program's second appearance in the NCAA Division II East Regional tournament. Their last time to the dance occurred in the 2012-13 season, when Crocitto and his squad set a program-best 23 wins in a season and made the tournament. This season the Bears surpassed that record in their final game of the season, to post a 24-7 overall record at the conclusion of the regular season.

THE FIELD

This year's NCAA East Region tournament has a combination of teams from the Northeast-10 Conference (NE-10), East Coast Conference (ECC) and the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference (CACC). The NE-10 has three teams appearing, including conference champions No. 1 Bentley University (25-5), who will also take on hosting duties, No. 8 Saint Anselm (18-9) and No. 2 American International College (25-5). From the ECC are No. 4 Queens College (20-8), winners of their second consecutive conference championship and No. 6 NYIT (24-8). The CACC has three teams as well in No. 3 Philadelphia University (25-6), No. 5 Holy Family University (22-8) and No. 7 Bloomfield College (24-7).

NYIT vs. THE FIELD

The Bears post a 17-56 all-time record against this year's East Region field. Against the field this year, the Bears are 2-2, with two wins over Queens College and dropping a game each to Bentley University and Holy Family. NYIT will take on Philadelphia University in the first round of this year's tournament. Philadelphia is 18-5 all time against NYIT, including a 67-66 victory in their last meeting on Nov. 15, 2009 in the Gallagher Center. The Rams have won the last three showdowns with the Bears.

HEAD COACH ANTHONY CROCITTO Hofstra '95, Seventh Season

Anthony Crocitto was named the sixth head women's basketball coach at NYIT in 2009 and enters his seventh season at the helm of the Bears. In six seasons, he has compiled an 89-80 overall record and stands at 59-50 in the East Coast Conference.

Last season, Crocitto and the Bears posted a 20-11 overall record for his second 20+ win season since becoming head coach. Their 13-7 ECC record landed them fourth in the conference and a berth into the ECC Tournament for the third consecutive year. After defeating LIU Post by a tight 76-71 decision, NYIT advanced to the championship game by way of a 73-69 defeat of District of Columbia. In heartbreaking fashion, Queens College pulled out a 65-63 victory, despite a 15-point performance by Nina Vukosavljevic. Dina Ragab and Shanice Allen were named to the first and second All-Conference and All-Met teams, respectively.

The 2013-2014 campaign featured a seven-game win streak and a 13-7 finish in the ECC, with an 18-10 overall record. Falling in the semifinals to LIU Post, 85-66, two players earned All-ECC accolades in Ragab and Alex Venuto. Senior Rebecca Romeo was named to the ECC All-Tournament team for her playoff performance and Demitra Apergis was one of 446 female student-athletes nominated for the 2014 NCAA Woman of the Year award. Ragab's awards continued as she was included on the All-Met Second Team.

With an NYIT-career high wins, Crocitto led the Bears to a 23-6 overall record in 2012-13, making an appearance in the ECC Championship game and earning a berth into the NCAA Tournament. NYIT faced Dowling College in both games, to eventually end their season. Four players earned inclusion on All-ECC squads and Nikki Jo Rotolo and Rebecca Lynch were named All-Met.

For the first time in his tenure, Crocitto directed the Blue and Gold to a double-digit win season, going 16-13 and 9-7 in the conference and appeared in the ECC quarterfinals. Despite losing in the first round, two players earned All-ECC Second Team accolades; Baker and Rotolo.

In 2010-11, NYIT rebounded with an 8-18 overall record and a 6-15 ECC mark. Junior transfer Cierra Baker, who played for Crocitto at Longwood University, averaged a season double-double with 17.5 points per game and 12.4 rebounds per game and earned All-ECC First Team and All-Met honors. Freshman Demitra Apergis finished eighth in the ECC in assists after leading NYIT with 70 and earned All-Rookie team honors.

It was a true transition year for the Bears in Crocitto's inaugural campaign, as they compiled a meager 4-23 overall record and a 4-15 mark in the East Coast Conference. Madison Robertson led the team with 13.8 points and 6.5 rebounds, per game, while Latoya Anderson added 11.2 points per game.

Crocitto brings a total of 20 years of collegiate coaching experience to his position. He spent two seasons as the top assistant for the women's basketball program at Longwood University and served as the assistant head coach at the University of Central Florida in Orlando (2006-2007) after a two-year stint (2004-2006) as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Hofstra University in Hempstead, N.Y. His recruiting efforts at UCF included three national rankings in the nation's top 50, while also assisting with academic monitoring that led to a team GPA above 3.0 each semester. He helped accomplish the same team academic successes at Hofstra, which finished 19-12 during 2005-2006 enroute to earning the school's first post-season win in the WNIT.
